In addition to her writing, Corvin-Blackburn is a teacher and transpersonal psychotherapist whose passion for over 30 years has been to lead people to deep inner transformation as a means to healing our planet. Her work is a blend of lessons from her personal journey, studies and training in many transpersonal and humanistic techniques, a highly developed intuition and strong connection to Higher Guidance.

Flyers for the workshops are attached. There is an additional discount for signing up for both workshops at the same time.
